SACRAMENTO, CA JANUARY 17, 2017 – In celebration of Black History Month, IMAGES THEATRE COMPANY (ITC) is proud to present their signature musical, “WE COME FROM GREATNESS,” conceived, written and directed by Images’ Executive Director, Lisa Lacy, with music/musical direction by Charles Cooper, and choreography by Grace O. Wash. This popular musical features an all-star local cast with well-known favorite vocalists, such as Bill Miller, Elaine Douglas, and many more.

“WE COME FROM GREATNESS” chronicles African-American history from African-Kingdoms, through the Civil Rights Movement, the election of President Obama and into current day. This unforgettable production uses original songs, music, drama, spoken-word and dance to honor and highlight the greatness from which African-Americans hailed, acknowledges their struggles as a people in America and celebrates their strength, courage and overall, progress.

Uplifting for the whole family, “WE COME FROM GREATNESS” raises the bar by dramatically placing the audience right in the middle of monumental historical occurrences. Educating while, entertaining, “WE COME FROM GREATNESS” excites and inspires its audiences, while reminding us that we must all press forward together in order to keep Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s dream of justice and equality, alive. It is a poignant show for the whole family, students, schools, and churches to attend. The lyrics, music, and dialogue resonate with audiences, long after the show is over.

“WE COME FROM GREATNESS” runs for two-weekends from February 9 through February 19, 2017 on Thursdays through Sundays. Performances on Thursday, Friday and Saturday shows are at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday shows at 3:00 p.m. at Grant Union High Theatre/Auditorium, located at 1400 Grand Avenue, Sacramento, CA 95838.
